A VERY MERRY THANK YOU

It's that time of the year again. Throughout the year, Faith Groups have been brilliant, working tirelessly as ever, providing a diverse range of services to members and local neighbourhoods. We appreciate the work you are doing within the community. On behalf of the Active Communities team, we would like to say a well deserved thanks to all our Faith groups and organisations in Lambeth.

THE PEOPLE FIRST EXPO

People First Expos are to be piloted and will bring together local Safer Neighbourhood Panels, service providers, voluntary groups and local people. They will provide an opportunity for local people to access information and meet up with organisations providing public and community services within their area. Six areas have been proposed reflecting ward clusters for such events. However, local people can decide for themselves which one they wish to attend.

People's First Expos will meet at least twice a year if the pilots prove a success and where possible will be linked to family fun days or established festivals to encourage wider attendance from local people. They will be events rather than meetings with interactive activities wherever possible. There will be

- Market stalls run by local services and groups
- Staff available to talk about their local service
- Family entertainment activities
- Question Time with a panel

People's First Expos will provide a thread that links the Local Strategic Partnership with area structures, and involve neighbourhood groups. They will provide an opportunity for groups to network with each other, learn and develop best practices, by bringing together a variety of groups from different communities. Area Services teams will be undertaking outreach to attract those who rarely attend formal meetings and will be using the contact management system developed after a borough wide audit of community contacts during July. People's First Expos will help to build community cohesion. See the notice board section for dates and venues, and details for getting involved.

Faith in Lambeth

Be Inspired, Be Informed, Be Involved!

Be Inspired – to make a difference
 Be Informed – about policy & Council plans
 Be Involved – in the political process to be able to influence decision-making that shapes your community and neighbourhood.

As announced in the summer newsletter Faith in Lambeth is undergoing change. Following the July workshop, a temporary Task group was formed to develop a blue print that would outline the development process for an independent borough wide, multi-faith network. The group met regularly over the summer and following a number of meetings and a general meeting in October, a shadow Steering Group was established to take the process forward.

If you would like to participate in the next phase of development, to look at proposed structures and to assess the feasibility of an independent forum or you require information on any of the topics discussed, please contact Dinah-Mary Allotey on 0207 926 2664, 07951 921 220 or dmallotey@lambeth.gov.uk.

A Word from Councillor Lorna Campbell

Well here we are approaching the end of another year and I would like to thank everyone for their hard work and commitment to participating in the discussions about the development of a borough wide multi faith independent network.

I'd like to draw your attention to the consultation process in respect of the Sustainable Community Strategy referred to in the last edition of this newsletter. The LSP needs us all to engage in the process as the Strategy will be long term and will affect all faith organisations in the borough. It is also an opportunity to highlight any specific changes needed to enable future partnership working with the local authority as well as partners from all sectors.

A question that may arise is 'why is it necessary to have 'another' community strategy? It is not another, it builds on earlier work that is being reviewed to reflect changes locally and national policy directions. Sustainability issues need to be addressed so there's a focus more on neighbourhood service delivery through the Local Area Agreements delivered by Lambeth First.

Finally, as most of you will be aware I have responsibility for community cohesion and over the past year a number of events have been organised to support the coming together of our diverse communities. I would especially like to thank the faith groups who participated in the month long Peace on the Streets activities in September. Your time and devotion, from planning to delivery cannot be understated. Thank you.

I would like to register my appreciation to all Faith Groups for your support and it is my hope that you will continue to give support in the New Year and beyond in 2008.

Seasons Greetings!

Getting involved in Housing matters

Have you ever wondered about how repairs contractors are appointed? Would you like to host fun events on housing estate? Would you like to become more informed and involved in how homes are managed?

There are several ways to get involved including mystery shopping, being part of a consultation group such as the Diversity Action Group or the exclusive 1000 club which is a group of residents consulted periodically by email, phone or post.

Do you know people who might want to get involved?

Call the Community Involvement Unit on 0207 926 3724.

Child Protection in Places of Worship

Lambeth Safeguarding Children's Board held another free, successful child protection training course for faith groups in Lambeth. The feedback from attendees was very positive and we will be holding one more session in the New Year.

Lambeth Council is committed to promoting the well-being of children. Safeguarding children is everybody's responsibility and we would like to encourage people who work with children and youth workers from all faiths to attend this free training course. The next training session will be on Wednesday 27 February 2008. Details of time and venue will be confirmed nearer the time. Meanwhile please book early to avoid disappointment.

For more information please call Dinah-Mary Allotey on 0207 926 2664, 07951 921 220 or email dmallotey@lambeth.gov.uk.

Hanukkah - the Jewish Feast of Lights,
Rabbi Menahem Lester

Hanukkah commemorates the victory of the Hasmoneans over the Greeks, some 2200 years ago, in the Land of Israel. Palestine was conquered by Alexander the Great and formed part of the enormous Greek empire. Alexander was generally accepted by the Jews and his reign was benign. This all changed when his empire was split following his death and the Assyrian Greeks ruled.

They sought to impose Greek morals, culture and religion over all their subjects. They banned Jewish religious observances, violated the Holy Temple in Jerusalem and decreed the droit du seigneur on newly-married brides. Life became intolerable for the population and they revolted, led by the priestly family of the Hasmoneans.

Though few in number and untrained as warriors, with Divine assistance they overcame the might of the Greek empire and re-dedicated the Temple.

When they searched for oil to kindle the "everlasting light", they could find but one kosher container still sealed with the seal of the High Priest. That represented a day's worth of oil as used in the menorah, the seven-branched candlestick. However, instead of one day, that oil lasted a full eight days, until fresh oil could be prepared. The menorah, today an eight-branched candlestick, is lit to publicise the miracle that occurred at this time of year, 2200 years ago.

Rabbi M. Lester, South London Synagogue

Belief in Work

The London Probation Board (LPB) working in partnership with London Action Trust (LAT) and St Mungo's Housing Association has been funded to work with small and medium sized faith organisations to develop mentoring services that support disadvantaged offenders and help them get into employment. Faith groups that take part in the project will be expected to provide mentoring and practical assistance to offenders from black minority ethnic communities.

Faith organisations selected to take part in the project will receive:

- A better knowledge of London Probation and the Criminal Justice System.
- An opportunity to develop relationships with the local community and with Statutory Public Protection bodies.
- Support in developing a local network of employers prepared to accept applications from beneficiaries of the project.

For more information please contact Deidre Johnson, on 020 7793 3717, 07904 728 060 or email deidre.johnson@lat.org.uk or Alan Weston on 0207 960 1693 or 07958 682 839.

What You Did During Peace Month – THANK YOU

Peace Month Inter-Faith Picnic, Alan Gadd, Secretary SLIFG

There was a good atmosphere at the Inter Faith Picnic held on Windrush Square on Sunday 9 September. Around 80 people of all ages participated in glorious sunshine and some passers-by were drawn into the event and enjoyed the delicious food that had been brought along. There were Buddhist, Hindu, Jewish, Muslim and Christian contributions through peace messages, recitations, songs, decorations and, of course, food. The event involved a good sample of the faith communities in Lambeth but of course one would hope for a still stronger response if such an event were repeated. The support of Clapham and Stockwell Faith Forum and Lambeth Multi Faith Action Group was much appreciated by South London Inter Faith Group as the initiating organisation. We are also indebted to Superintendent Paul Wilson and the Peace Month Committee for their support, and to Lambeth Active Communities Team for their guidance and for underwriting our use of Windrush Square.

For more information about SLIFG please contact Alan Gadd at secretary@southlondoninterfaith.org.uk or call 020 8678 8977.

Peace Walk Trailers at Soka Gakkai International – Buddhist in Brixton

About a dozen people went on a Peace Walk visiting places of worship and peace promoting organisations in Lambeth. The Walk started at Holy Trinity Clapham Common and ended at Soka Gakkai Buddhist in Brixton. Stops included Ahl-UI-Bayt Islamic Centre on Edgeley Road, CAFOD and International Alert. The group then hopped on to the tube for visit to the new St Peter's Centre for Meditation and Peace in Vauxhall, for well deserved teas and biscuits.

Thank you St Peter's for refreshing our tired trailers.

Soka Gakkai International Buddhist, John Cormican

SGI-UK is a lay Buddhist organization. Our determination to keep the sprouted seed of 2006 alive came to fruition through the determination of local members to move the annual event from North London to Lambeth in support of Peace Month. National support from our Youth Division allowed us to design, create and put on a 9-day exhibition 'Life-Truth, Justice, Dignity'. Opened by Professor Hind, an estimated 2,000 plus came to the exhibition that was primarily about Peace but its starting point was a call for the abolition of nuclear weapons. We thought it was a great exhibition "something to be really proud of" as Prof. Hind said. It touched a lot of peoples hearts. Tying it in with Peace Month aligns perfectly with our aims and ambitions as our motto is "Peace through Trust - Trust through Friendship".

Rastafarians Celebrate The Ethiopian Millennium during Peace Month

Over 200 people turned up in the Lambeth Assembly Hall to celebrate the Ethiopian Millennium with the Rastafarian community in Lambeth. This was the first event of its kind and the first time the Council had worked in partnership with EWF – Ethiopian World Federation Incorporated. The programme was shaped by the community featuring some wonderful exhibitions and lively music with dancing. Some of your comments about the event were very encouraging, as you can read.

'It's very interesting and I am enjoying the event. Things like this should be kept more regular to keep people informed about other religions'.

'Not having been to a Rastafarian event before I am pleased to be able to attend and learn about a culture before which I was ignorant. Thank you for sharing this with me and my family'.

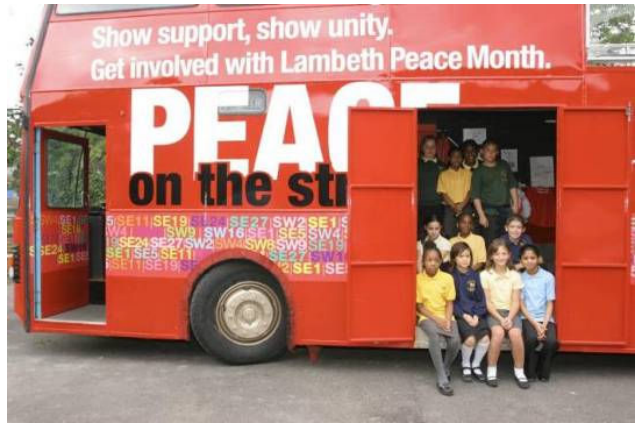

Churches Together for Peace on the Street

Local churches across Lambeth came together to put on a very lively and entertaining programme at the Tate Gardens in central Brixton. Between 150 – 200 people gathered to enjoy the activities. The programme included singing and dancing, poetry and brief talks from people working in the criminal justice system. One of the highlights of the afternoon was a short presentation by the Youth Group from Brixton Baptist Church and some of their sister churches. They acted out a violent street scene involving gangs and did an excellent job of portraying the dire consequences of violence. This was the last event of the month long activities in September. Once again, a massive thanks to every one who participated in one way or the other to make Peace Month a success.

Lambeth Peace Month co-ordinated by the Council's Active Communities Team was a great success. During the month our diverse communities came together in unprecedented ways to create opportunities for engagement across the borough. We would like to thank everyone who organised or attended events held during the month.

Feedback from Faith Events

Iftari (breaking fast), Ebrahim Rashid, Hyderi Islamic Centre

On September 25, the Council's Active Communities Team organised an "Iftari" programme in the Town Hall in Brixton. A number of Muslims and non-Muslims participated in this event. The programme began with an introductory talk followed by the recitation of the holy Qu'ran along with the translation. This was done by a young boy and a young girl from the Hyderi Islamic Centre, Streatham.

I had the privilege of giving a talk on the fundamental beliefs of Islam together with 'The Concept of Fasting in Islam'. There was a brief question/answer session. At about 7:15, it was time to break the fast and we all had our meal together. The meal was delicious and we all enjoyed it thoroughly.

On behalf of the Muslim community in general and the Lambeth Borough in particular, I would like to thank Huma Munshi for her tireless effort in making this event a successful one. I hope and pray we will have many such events in the future where we can all get together and learn good things from each other.

Interfaith Programme at Hyderi

On October 7 the Hyderi Islamic Centre organised an interfaith program. The program started with evening prayers (Maghrib) followed by the breaking of the fast. People from different faiths took part in this event. After the dinner, we had special supplications (duas) for the holy month of Ramadan, followed by the main event. We had representatives for three faiths providing talks on their respective religions on the concept of fasting. Mr Ganesh Lall of the Caribbean Hindu Society, Reverend Russell Furley-Smith of Purley United Reformed Church and Mr Murtaza Lakha of the Hyderi Islamic Centre all provided invaluable insights into their respective faiths understanding of the concept of fasting.

There was also a question and answer session which provided an excellent opportunity for members of all the faiths represented to find out more information from the experienced speakers on the panel. The attendance was very good and encouraging.

Hospitality at the Caribbean Hindu Temple

Members of the Caribbean Hindu Society (CHS) have generously hosted three different events in their Temple in Ostade Road, Brixton Hill recently. Thanks are due to Ganesh Lall for making the arrangements and to the other members of the CHS for their welcome. Each meeting included a tour of the Temple. Many of the visitors had not been inside a Hindu Temple before.

In September Revd Jeanette McLaren, vicar of St Paul's with St Saviour's Church, Brixton brought ten newly trained Anglican lay ministers to visit the Hindu Temple, as part of the inter faith training module devised by the South London Inter Faith Group. The response of the participants (they also visited a Sikh Gurdwara and a Buddhist Temple) was very positive and showed the value of these visits and shared reflection afterwards.

On September 27th Lambeth SACRE (Standing Advisory Council for Religious Education) held their autumn meeting at the Hindu Temple. Usually SACRE meetings have been held in a council office. However, our new initiative is to hold meetings at places of worship, thus making direct contact with faith communities and enabling SACRE members to become more aware of the religious diversity in Lambeth. (The November meeting was then held at the Samye Dzong Tibetan Buddhist Centre).

The third event, on Sunday 14th October, was organised by the South London Inter Faith Group. It brought together representatives of 18 of the 24 inter faith groups operating in south London. Two of these are Lambeth Groups: LAMAG (Lambeth Multi Faith Action Group) and CSFF (Clapham and Stockwell Faith Forum).

It was the first meeting of its kind and was quite encouraging and inspiring, with over 40 people able to network and hear what each group was doing, to pick up good ideas and spread best practice. The Bishop of Kingston attended. The meeting finished with a delicious meal most generously provided by members of the CHS.

Lambeth Council marks Islam Awareness Week

Lambeth Council facilitated an event as part of Islam Awareness Week on 22nd November at the Karibu Centre. This event sought to raise awareness about the basic principles of Islam and the pressing issue of Islamophobia and faith hate crime.

On the night there was a diverse range of attendees from Lambeth's faith communities and proceedings were sensitively facilitated by Cllr. Lorna Campbell, Deputy Cabinet Member – Community Cohesion.

A Muslim citizen in Lambeth spoke of her journey as a Muslim woman from Ireland to London and learning to remain positive in the face of adversity.

Councillor. Pav Akhtar and the Rukayyah Collector from the National Union of Students also shared their experience of fighting discrimination and empowering the students and residents they represent. This has been particularly important for Muslim community members after 9/ 11 and the bombings on 7/7.

There was also involvement from SACRE, an organisation that seeks to provide information on religious education in primary schools, the Metropolitan Police Service and the Ethnic Minority Achievement Team. It was acknowledged that faith hate crime affects all sections of our community and that we have to work collaboratively to address this and utilise all the reporting mechanisms available.

For further information and to get involved in similar events in the future please contact Huma Munshi, Muslim Communities Co-ordinator on 07983 560 032 / hmunshi@lambeth.gov.uk

Funding and Freebies

Community Champion Funds support the work of local people who can encourage others to get more involved in renewing their neighbourhoods.

The fund is designed to increase the skills levels of individuals to enable them to act as inspirational figures, community entrepreneurs, and community mentors/leaders, in order to increase community involvement in regeneration and learning activity.

The Fund also encourages older (50+) volunteers to get involved in helping their communities. The main type of funded activity is very small-scale but it is activity that makes a real difference.

Contact Sue Halstead on 020 7217 3711 or email sue.halstead@gol.gsi.gov.uk, or visit the website at www.go-london.gov.uk.

Sutton Trust: The main objective of the Sutton Trust is to support innovative projects that provide educational opportunities for young people from non-privileged backgrounds. Your innovative start-up project should have the scope to benefit large numbers in the future. The Sutton Trust will fund projects across the UK, in any area where there is need, including rural and inner city areas. The only exception is for specialist schools – only specialist schools in London are funded. The Sutton Trust tends to fund projects in a formal education setting, working primarily with organisations such as schools, universities, community groups, charities and research bodies. They do not fund individuals. Their work with the secondary school age group is focused on gifted and talented students. There is no deadline for applications as Trustees meet regularly throughout the year. For more information please visit www.suttontrust.com

Trust for London supports new and emerging small voluntary organisations that benefit people and communities in London. They are especially keen to receive applications ethnic minority organisations.

TFL funds areas of work which have one (or more) of the following aims:

- To challenge discrimination faced by disabled people;

- To promote the inclusion and integration of recently established communities;

- To address new and emerging needs.

Who can apply

You will need to demonstrate that all the criteria below apply to your organisation. You must:
