Reports to:	Assistant Director, Education and Learning

Job Purpose

To play a key part in the overall strategic direction and success of the Lambeth Schools Partnership (LSP). To provide leadership and management in the development and implementation of strategies/training to raise achievement in Lambeth Primary Schools, improving outcomes for all pupils. To secure funding opportunities and generate income. Work closely with the LSP Board, the Director of Education and Learning (to whom you will report), and the Education and Learning Senior Leadership Team (SLT). The portfolio may be varied from time to time by discussion with the Director or Chief Executive in accordance with the needs of the authority. This may include special project responsibilities or taking a corporate lead for the authority on key initiatives as and when required.

Responsibilities

- To make a significant contribution to the overall impact and success of the Lambeth Schools Partnership education priorities and desired outcomes, working closely with the LSP Board, Headteachers, and Lambeth Education and Learning Service.
- To keep abreast of national and local policy drivers and changes, anticipating what will be a benefit to deliver the school improvement support required at any time so the LSP offer is nimble, agile and at the forefront of national school improvement provision.
- To develop and implement strategies, and training and development, for working with the leadership teams in Primary schools to improve their leadership skills, management capacity and curriculum delivery.
- To significantly develop the School Improvement, offer to Headteachers and Chairs of governing bodies.
- To develop a comprehensive and bespoke range of governance support in relationship to school leadership, working closely alongside Lambeth Governor Services team to ensure seamless delivery to schools.
- To provide expert leadership and training to school leaders and school staff.
- To direct and oversee comprehensive and forensic quality assurance of school improvement work being delivered in schools.

- To drive the curation, as well as the creation, of resources and consider sources of expertise external to LSP.
- To work positively, proactively and collaboratively with the members of the LSP Board and to keep them abreast of work taking place, ensuring that work streams are connected and coherent across the identified LSP priorities and outcomes
- To work with the primary school clusters in developing their capacity to deliver schools improvement interventions'
- Ensure there are effective processes in place to develop and maintain appropriate monitoring, challenge, support and intervention strategies in all schools, especially those schools causing concern.
- To be responsible for ensuring that high quality early intervention is in place in schools causing concern and manage and report on the systems and strategies for supporting weak schools.
- To play a key role in the 'Action Group' meetings which support vulnerable schools, ensuring the timely submission, and oversight, of Intervention, and instituting and overseeing their impact.
- To monitor educational standards and performance in all schools within the scope of the LSP, keeping the LSP Board, Lambeth Education and Learning SLT up to date with challenges, causes for celebration and concern.
- To analyse and report on all relevant performance data related to Primary education and progress against targets.
- To produce regular reports as required on the work and its impact on outcomes for pupils in Primary schools as part of reviewing impact and value for money; and make a significant contribution to all contract monitoring reporting processes.
- To identify new opportunities to develop services and types of support that will raise outcomes, close gaps and support schools to improve.
- To strive to ensure that 100% of Lambeth schools subscribe to the LSP.
- To contribute to the selection, induction and support for Primary headteachers, teachers and other leaders, including 'New Heads Induction Programme', and 'Schools in the Ofsted Window Programme'.
- To contribute to the generation of income through tight budget management and the promotion of a range of services within and outside the LSP.
- To keep abreast of opportunities to bid for new work and to play a leading part in any submissions for new contracts or grant funding.
- To design and deliver high quality training to the associate School Improvement Advisers and with the Education and Learning SLT as required.
- To ensure a continuing commitment to equality and diversity in employment and community cohesion identifying and delivering to the diverse client groups in the borough in a way that offers a flexible, responsive choice of service delivery.
