A new Zebra crossing that links the bus stop on the west side of Norwood road to Elm court road and Elm green school.

Extended pavements reduce the pedestrian crossing distance.

Removal of the central pedestrian island.

Removal of one tree to ensure a safe site line from Norwood road to the West side of crossing.

Reduction of the width of Harpenden road entrance to make space for the crossing. This will require one-way access to Harpenden road.