A larger, less cluttered area of open public space outside the station.

Wide pavements create a comfortable walking route to and from Tulse Hill station.

A turning head free of car parking, providing easier and safer turn-around for drivers.

Relocated cycle parking with higher capacity.

A parking space for blue badge holders and a loading area for local businesses.

A 'Copenhagen' style junction from Station rise to Norwood road, ensures pedestrian priority.