There was an uneven split in the intake from each band as during the iterative (offer making) process some bands ran out of children as they were offered higher preferences or at the school.

Those children that did not sit the test were listed in an 'over-flow' band, Band D.

Children listed in D considered once all places were offered to those in bands A to C.

On National Offer Day (1 March 2017) every applicant that recorded a test score were offered a place at The London Nautical School or a place at a school listed as a higher preference on their CAF. No children from Band D were offered a place on National Offer Day as the school was full with children listed in Bands A to C.
