

Parallel Zebra and Cycle Crossing Example and explanation

An example from London Borough of Hackney

Figure 7.6 Parallel pedestrian/cyclist crossing (as included in draft TSRGD revision)

Parallel Zebra Crossing

A new form of crossing, similar to a zebra crossing, that will allow cyclists to ride across part of crossing area.

Drivers must give way to both cyclists and pedestrians at the crossing.

Working in partnership with: