

Learn to start a business

There are lots of courses for budding entrepreneurs in Lambeth. Whether you want to find out if running a business is for you or if you're about to launch and need help with finance, administration or marketing.

Business skills courses

Southbank University

From 2 year Foundation Degrees in Enterprise and Small Business Development at London South Bank University (<http://www.lsbu.ac.uk/courses/course-finder/enterprise-small-business-development-fda>)

Lambeth College:

10 week enterprise and business skills courses at Lambeth College, <http://www.lambethcollege.ac.uk/courses/developing-enterprise-and-business-skills/category/special-interest/>

Morley College:

2 day taster sessions in a range of business topics at Morley College, <http://www.morleycollege.ac.uk/courses/enterprise>

Tree Shepherd

<http://treeshepherd.org.uk/category/courses/> provides practical courses for people starting up in business.

Are you a start up food entrepreneur and want practical advice on setting up a food business?

<http://lambethfood.org.uk/create/> is a new programme bringing the skills and knowledge of business owners to share their experience/tips on setting up and staying in business. Although the course is delivered between September – November each year, look out for free networking events for food start ups hosted throughout the year.
