

Flat Entrance Doors

Flat entrance doors are the responsibility of the leaseholder, under their lease. The flat entrance doors to their property will therefore not be replaced and no cost will be recharged to leaseholders, in respect of this item of work.

If a leaseholder would like a flat entrance door, this can be discussed with the contractor once onsite and details of the manufacturer and style will be provided.