

Moving out?

We anticipate that most residents will be able to stay in their homes during the work. There may be occasions where it is not reasonable for residents to stay in their homes (for example if we have to carry out substantial rebuilding, or if the resident is vulnerable). If this happens we will work closely with the resident to make sure they are moved to suitable temporary accommodation.